

Could you imagine coming to work every day to interact with amazing professionals from all over the world while growing an innovative business on the Mediterranean coast?

Well, welcome to the Sun and Co. team. Our motto is work smarter, live better, and we live that truth every day. We're passionate about our work, the amazing people who stay at our coliving space and most importantly... we're about shaping the future for location-independent professionals worldwide.

Our team is searching for a new addition to the team so keep scrolling to find out more!

ABOUT SUN AND CO.

Sun and Co. is a coliving and coworking space located in Jávea. We are a place where remote workers from all over the world come to live, work and learn from each other. We opened in 2015, and since then, we have hosted more than 600 professionals from over 50 countries.

We're dedicated to creating an inspiring space that promotes personal and professional growth and work/life balance. Community is our strong suit and it shows! In fact, we won two awards, one for the Best Coliving Community & User Experience in 2021 and the best Coliving for Digital Nomads in 2022 at the Coliving Awards.

ABOUT THE POSITION

We're looking for an undergraduate student. You'd need to be interested in social media and content creation to help us grow our online presence and continue impacting the lives of others. You'll be not only managing our social networks but also taking the lead on online engagement and various digital marketing initiatives.

In a team of four people, you will be involved in every aspect of running a coliving space and be responsible for helping us achieve our strategic and economic goals.

Not to worry, you won't be behind a computer all day! One of the most significant advantages of this job is that you'll have the opportunity to help with and take part in
